REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Representation of a National Insurance Carrier in civil matters brought in Connecticut.
- Representation of National Banks in various contractual matters in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Kevin M. Hughes has extensive experience handling a variety of litigation matters from pre-litigation through resolution, including motion practice, arbitration, mediation, and trial. He has taken over 35 jury verdicts throughout the state of Connecticut, resulting in many outright defendants' verdicts along with many verdicts below the last offer of settlement prior to trial.

Kevin is responsible for representing clients in matters concerning premises liability, motor vehicle accident defense and general negligence. Kevin handles every step of the litigation process, including answering the summons and complaint, organizing and implementing the discovery process, investigation, and depositions, and coordinating medical examinations. Kevin takes pride in working with the client to develop a litigation strategy aimed at the efficient and swift resolution of the matter.

Kevin practiced as an in-house counsel for a Fortune 100 company where he handled insurance defense matters for the company from case inception through trial, obtaining positive outcomes for his client at all stages of the litigation process. He has also served as the Managing Attorney for the State of Connecticut for a national law firm.
