Nichole Camiso brings over a decade of civil litigation experience to the firm, with a concentration in insurance defense. She has defended over 300 cases to successful resolution, by way of settlement, arbitration, mediation, or trial.

Nichole has a broad range of experience in matters such as complex litigation, insurance coverage, SIU/fraud, construction litigation, premises liability, products liability, wrongful death, employment and labor law, public entity liability, professional liability, civil rights litigation, DRAM shop and liquor liability, and personal injury.

Throughout her career, Nichole has honed her skills in the field of insurance defense. Before joining Hickey Smith, Nichole worked as a senior trial attorney for the law firm of Faust Goetz Schenker & Blee. There, her practice involved complex litigation matters, including multi-party construction and premises liability matters, insurance coverage and contractual indemnification issues, construction defect claims, DRAM shop/liquor liability, professional liability, personal injury, and catastrophic injury/wrongful death matters.
