11th Circuit Court of Appeals

Philip Partridge brings more than two decades of experience in all areas of litigation, mediation and trial advocacy with a concentration in insurance defense, probate and real property disputes, commercial litigation, and alternative dispute resolution. Philip has worked with large insurance carriers, and has represented clients in complex insurance matters encompassing all aspects of the civil litigation process, from initial case evaluation to resolution.

In his litigation practice, Philip provided alternative dispute resolution (ADR), with highly successful mediation results in disputes involving personal injury, insurance, estates and trusts, commercial litigation, real property litigation, commercial and residential foreclosures, HOA claims, and general civil litigation and appeals. In addition to his litigation and ADR experience, Philip is an educator in the legal field. He has conducted and participated in numerous legal seminars and has been a guest lecturer at Stetson University in the pre-law program.

Philip earned his Juris Doctorate from University of Florida, where he was the Law College Council Treasurer. With his diverse background and many years of experience delivering consistent, positive results, Philip provides an array of expertise to Hickey Smith clients.
